

ELDER'S DAILY

REPORT BOOK.

Name Jernal White in the Army.

Month of 19

DATE	Miles Walked	Miles Rode	Families Visited in Tracting	Fam. Re-visited in Tracting	Fam. of Strangers Vis. by Invitation	Fam. of Members Visited	Tracts Distributed	Hours Spent in Actual Missionary Wrk.	Gospel Conversations	Hours Spent in Study	No. of Times Entertained	Refused Entertainment	Refused Tracts	Gospel Letters Written	Books Sold	Books Loaned	Books Given Away	Meetings Held	Actual No. Meetings Held	Children Blessed	Baptisms New Members	Baptisms of Children	Expense	REMARKS
19
At left Steben Oct 4th 1912. And arrived in Camp Lewis Oct 7th. It went to the 1st Regt. I was there about the week. Then was transferred to the 34th Regt. Co. I. The Steben days were Geo. W. Carlile, Hyrum Clegh, Hyrum Clegh, Andrew Stuckler, Auto Bell, Marselous, Provost, Orson M. Lee, W. Jerry Mahoney, William Jackson and Orson T. Maule. Clegh and Clegh went home the day we left the 34th Regt. May 6th 1918 I came home on a mailbag. Went back on the 20th. Left Camp Lewis June 24th. Arrived in Camp Steben June 30th. July 5th left Camp Steben. Took auto and crossed the Hudson to N. York. we were placed on a transport about 4 o'clock. Stayed in the Steben Steben. At 11 o'clock on the 11th we started to sail. I was on the Empress of Russia. There were twelve ships in our company. We arrived at Liverpool July 15th about 8 P.M. but were landed till 2 o'clock on the 18th. July 20th took a train and went to Hampton England. On the 21st we crossed the English Channel and landed in Te. Home France. July 24th we sailed in day cars.

Journal of Frederick Giles Carlile, Names listed at Fort Lewis, Washington: George W. Carlile, Lynn Clyde, Hyrum Clegh, Andrew W. Fisher, Auto Bell, Marselous Provost, Orson M. Lee, W. LeRoy Mahoney, William Taylor and Owen L. North